2011 LAKE HARTWELL ANTIQUE BOAT FESTIVAL

Saturday, April 16, 2011

Hartwell Marina, 149 Hartwell Marina Road, Hartwell, Ga
 Show Hours: 10 am – 4pm

Maggie Taylor's Houseboat, the Claudia Belle will be the gathering spot. It is located on J-Dock, Slip J-22; she is aft in to the dock. The boat show hours are 10am – 4pm, but members are welcome to show up as early 8:00 a.m. and stay until around dark-thirty. Parking is about $2.00 and the funds will go the local high school ROTC, so it is for a good cause. Of course, the earlier you come, the better the parking. Maggie's boat is on the backside of the Marina, so if you have to park near the boat docking area it is quite a walk, but no more than a mile and it is fairly smooth. It is a great event. There should be a small grill/deli open for the day and Maggie has plenty of room for food and beverage. Maggie will also have a canoe available for anyone who wants to use it. There is a boat launch available if anyone wants to bring their own boat (call ahead to reserve slips). There is plenty of room to tie off several jet skis around her boat. Her boat is under a covered slip, so even if it rains we can still party and walk the docks to see the boats; of course, they parade the boats all about as well. It is a good time. You can also fish off Maggie's boat if anyone is so inclined; it sits in over 60' feet of water and they have caught stripers, hybrids and catfish. The crappie are suppose to be in by then as well. Maggie has room for about twenty folks to sleep over (bring your own sleeping bag or air mattress). Insects have never been a problem.
