Online link to acquire LA fishing license <http://www.wlf.louisiana.gov/page/recreational-fishing-licenses-and-permits>

There is a very good grocery store on the island a few miles from Bridgeside. There is also a Walmart Supercenter on LA 1 approx. 34 mi north of Grand Isle (but you have to watch closely for it or you will zip on by it). Grand Isle is approx. 568 miles from ATL, depending upon your starting point; the roads are good all the way down. If the weather is too bad for fishing, it is about 2 hours to the French Quarter.

Grand Isle is known for world class Tuna fishing offshore and a phenomenal inshore fishery, especially Redfish, along with many other inshore and offshore species available in this area. In 2017 we caught Tuna, Dolphin, King and Spanish Mackerel, a 25-pound Redfish (which you can keep in LA), Cobia, Red and Mangrove Snapper, Bonito and way too many sharks. We even had a couple of Swordfish hits.
